Every one in the party, with the exception of Dr. Wouthman, recovered his overcoat. The physician's coat, valued at $50, could not be found, and the police believe somebody picked it up.

Finest Potatoes from Maine

At 161 James Butler Grocery Stores.

Last season's local crop of potatoes was a great disappointment. Their keeping and cooking qualities were both poor, and Long Island potatoes, generally the very best in the world, proved to a large extent soggy, discolored and lacking in the right taste and flavor. We have not seen in twenty-five years so many potatoes below grade in the New York market.

Good potatoes are exceedingly scarce and hard to get. Our buyers have searched the country all over, and only in one section of the old Pine Tree State have they found potatoes that fill our requirements. They are the famous Green Mountain variety, grown in Maine. We contracted for the pick of the crop and arranged for special shipments. One of these shipments has just arrived and we will sell them for three days at one-half their real value in this market. They are white, sound, medium streed and cook "deliciously mealy"—the kind that make your mouth water when they come steaming on the table. Up to next Wednesday night, a basket.

Very Best Butter, a

For housekeepers who prefer the PRINT BUTTER a limited supply of extra fancy quality is delivered daily to all of our 161 Groceries. The price each day will be the lowest that can possibly be charged.
